- E. As of December 31, 2022, Wallick Investments, LLC managed $91,539,524 in assets on a discretionary basis.

5. Fees and Compensation

- A. Wallick Investments' fees are a percentage of a client's assets under management. The percentage is based on a client's risk tolerance and assets under management. Wallick Investments can add greater value to portfolios weighted more heavily towards equities. Following is the Wallick Investments fee schedule.

Assets Managed	Aggressive	Moderately Aggressive Growth	Moderate Balanced	Conservative	Very Conservative Defensive	401K Plans
<$250,000	1.40%	1.40%	1.40%	1.35%	1.30%	Wallick Investment Models 1.0%
$250,000-499,999	1.25%	1.20%	1.15%	1.10%	1.05%
$500,000-999,999	1.00%	.95%	.90%	.85%	.80%	Portfolios of funds or ETFs .60%
>$1,000,000	.80%	.75%	.70%	.65%	.60%	Individual fund or ETF .35%

Advisory account fees may be negotiable based on an individual client's circumstances.

The associated advisory fees are charged quarterly in advance and are based upon assets under management. The first billing will occur within the first 30 days of signing the client agreement. If a written request to terminate the client agreement is received, Wallick Investments will issue a pro-rated refund for the remainder of that quarter.

- B. In addition to quarterly Wallick Investments advisory fees, clients will also incur brokerage and custodian fees. For clients using FOLIOfn/Goldman Sachs brokerage and custodian services, the related fee schedule is as follows:

Fee as a % of assets	On assets (per client) above:	Up to and including assets (per client) of:
.20%	0	$250,000
.17%	$250,000	$500,000
.15%	$500,000	$1,000,000
.12%	$1,000,000	$5,000,000
.10%	$5,000,000	$10,000,000

FOLIOfn/Goldman Sachs billing notices go out approximately 10 days in advance. Client's not using FOLIOfn/Goldman Sachs will have their fees calculated by Wallick Investments and directly deducted from their accounts. - C. Clients using Charles Schwab as their custodian may incur trading fees. (Please see custodial agreement).
- D. When Wallick Investments purchases mutual funds or exchange traded funds for a client's portfolio, the client will incur the associated management fees. These fees are deducted directly from the reported value of the funds. Please see section 12 for additional brokerage related information.
- E. Wallick Investments receives a licensing fee of .15% for assets allocated to the Inspire Fidelis Multi-Factor ETF (NYSE ticker: FDLS). This ETF is charged with replicating Wallick Investments' Fidelis Multi-Factor Index.

6. Performance-Based Fees

Wallick Investments does not accept performance-based fees.

7. Types of Clients

Wallick Investments offers our services to individuals, trusts, pensions, endowments, foundations and other non-affiliated advisors. The minimum account size for continuous investment advisory services is $200,000. This minimum account size is waived for all accounts established prior to 2023. Minimum account size requirements maybe waived on a case by case basis.

8. Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

A. Wallick Investments relies heavily on quantitative analysis for equity security selection. We consider two types of factors for equity selection: opportunistic and defensive. For both, Wallick Investments, LLC uses a proprietary factor-based security-selection strategy that leverages research data from two well-known independent providers, Morningstar® and Zacks®.

The Wallick Investments' equity selection process identifies companies with the following factors and characteristics:

Opportunistic Factors (Value and Momentum)

- Reasonable valuation ratios
- Strong price and earnings momentum

Defensive Factors (Quality and Low Volatility)

- Above-average growth
- Above-average profitability
- Above-average financial health
- Above average dividend yield
- Low Beta and/or Standard Deviation

WI's Fidelis portfolio is a core equity portfolio and has close to a neutral weighting of both opportunistic and defensive factors. As of August 2022, the sole holding of the WI Fidelis portfolio became the Inspire Fidelis Multi-Factor ETF (ticker:FDLS) with a mandate of replicating the WI Fidelis Multi-Cap Multi-Factor Index.

WI's Excelsis portfolio is a core equity portfolio that attempts to make modest tactical adjustments to outperform the WI Fidelis portfolio. These tactical adjustments may include changes to market exposure (beta) and/or sector or equity factor tilts.

WI's Tactical Asset Allocation portfolio over-weights a favored asset class. Favored asset class is determined by economic data.

WI's Tactical Factor Rotation portfolio over-weights a favored equity factor. Favored factors are based on economic data. This portfolio was integrated into WI Excelsis portfolio and discontinued as a stand-alone offering in 2022.

Wallick Investments, LLC has one fixed income/bond strategy. Depending on the interest rate environment, we adjust the allocations to a diversified set of fixed income mutual or exchange traded funds.

B. A client's actual allocation to WI portfolios is dependent on their risk tolerance, time frames and goals and objectives.

Investing in equity, fixed income and hedge related securities involves risk of loss that clients should be prepared to bear. The amount of risk (from an academic perspective) is directly correlated with the level of expected return.

All our strategies comply with the US Conference of Catholic Bishops Investment Guidelines.

C. For each of our strategies, there is a "material risk" of loss of principal. Following is the brief discussion of the types of risks associated with all investment strategies.

- a. Equity risk: the risk that stock prices and/or the implied volatility will change.
- b. Interest rate risk: the risk that interest rates and/or the implied volatility will change.

For each of our strategies, there is also a "material risk" of loss of principal specific to each model. Following is a brief discussion of the types of risks associated with our specific models.

- c. Market cap risk: the risk that stock prices and/or the implied volatility will change due specifically to the size of the companies held (Large, Mid, Small).
- d. Style risk: the risk that interest rates and/or the implied volatility will change due to a specific style of investing (growth, value, momentum, absolute, socially or morally responsible, etc.)
- e. Currency risk: the risk that foreign exchange rates and/or the implied volatility will change. (Hedge, International)
- f. Commodity risk: the risk that commodity prices (e.g. corn, copper, crude oil) and/or implied volatility will change. (Hedge)

In addition to the risk associated with all investment strategies and our specific models, the Wallick Investment strategies have risks associated with active management. Active strategies tend to increase portfolio turnover and if a client does not use a broker that charges a flat fee based on assets under management, such as FOLIOfn/Goldman Sachs, clients may incur additional costs. Higher turnover also has the potential to increase taxes associated with capital gains. There is no guarantee that the Wallick Investment selection criteria will add value to clients' portfolios.

D. Wallick Investments strongly recommends asset allocation and security diversification. Our core equity portfolios maintain sector diversification of plus or minus 8% of the benchmark and all client portfolios are allocated according to the individual clients' risk tolerance and time horizon. Individual client's allocations will be defined in their Investment Policy Statements.

9. Disciplinary Information

Wallick Investments, LLC has no legal or disciplinary events to disclose.

10. Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

11. Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading

A. Wallick Investments, LLC agrees to uphold the CFA Society's code of Ethics as well as its Asset Manager Code of Professional Conduct.

B. Members and managers may buy or sell securities that are also recommended to Wallick Investment clients. The potential conflict of interest associated with these transactions will be included in every client agreement. To fully disclose and/or minimize any risk of possible conflicts of interest, Wallick Investments:

1. Limits manager and member individual equity holdings to a maximum of 5%. This does not include mutual funds or exchange traded funds.
2. Requires all managers and members to disclose all their holdings to our corporate compliance officer at least annually.
3. Will not transact member/manager trades prior to discretionary client transactions.
4. Upon request, will provide clients with a listing of all member/manager holdings and activity for the previous three months.

12. Brokerage Practices

For all standard client relationships, except where a client has directed Wallick Investments, LLC to use a specific broker, Wallick Investments has the discretion over the custodian/broker to be utilized. For non-discretionary accounts, Wallick Investments, LLC will recommend a broker. Wallick Investments, LLC selects and recommends brokers based on best available price (commissions) and most favorable execution.

Occasionally, clients will request or require Wallick Investments, LLC to select a certain broker-dealer to execute transactions on their behalf. By directing brokerage, clients forego potential benefits from savings on commissions and execution costs that Wallick Investments may be able to obtain for other clients through negotiated volume discounts.

Wallick Investments does not direct brokerage to any broker-dealers as compensation for client referrals and we do not have any commission recapture agreements with broker-dealers under which a portion of the commission dollars are used to pay our operating costs or expenses. We also do not accept “soft dollars” for research provided by any brokers or their affiliates.

Wallick Investments will recommend clients establish a custodian account with select firms. These relationships will allow Wallick Investments to trade directly with that custodian. If a client elects to have another broker/dealer or custodian, we will require them to acknowledge in writing that Wallick Investments will not have authority to negotiate commissions and the best execution may not be achieved. In addition, these clients may pay commission rates higher than our other clients.

13. Review of Accounts

Clients will receive monthly account statements from their custodian and quarterly performance reviews and commentary from Wallick Investments LLC. Clients may also accept a quarterly invitation to set up a meeting to discuss the performance in person or via phone.

All reviews will include analysis of overall portfolio performance. There will be one reviewer for each account. The reviewers will be titled “portfolio manager.” As of January 1, 2018, Daniel T. Wallick, J. Wade Stinnette Jr. and Jacob D. Wallick are portfolio managers.

client advisory fee generated) is paid to the referring party. The referral arrangement between any referring party and Wallick Investments, LLC will not result in any charges to the client in addition to the normal level of advisory fees charged.

Section 275-206(4)-3, and each client is required to sign a copy of the "Solicitor's Separate Written Disclosure" document at the time of entering into an advisory contract in any jurisdiction. This includes the securities to be bought or sold and amount to buy or sell. The only limitations on the investment authority will be those limitations imposed in writing by the client.
